Applying for the disabled veterans homestead market value exclusion Form CR-DVHE100

Who is eligible?

You may be eligible for a market value exclusion of up to $300,000 if you are a United States military veteran with total (100 percent) and permanent service-connected disability.

If you are not totally and permanently disabled but have disability of 70 percent or more, then you may qualify for a $150,000 market value exclusion. If this is the case, please complete form CR-DVHE70 (Homestead of Disabled Veterans with 70 Percent or More Disability).

You must be able to verify honorable discharge from the United States armed forces as indicated by U.S. Government Form DD214 or other official military discharge papers. You must also be certified by the United States Veterans Administration as having service-connected disability.

Homestead Property

This application is not a substitute for a homestead application. You must apply for and be granted homestead on a qualifying property prior to applying for this market value exclusion.

How to apply

Complete the entire application fully and legibly. Attach all proper documentation. Mail the application and the required documentation to your county assessor by July 1 of the current year to be eligible for exclusion in the next payable tax year (i.e., if you return this form by July 1, 2008 and are approved, your exclusion will begin with taxes payable in 2009).

For veterans with total (100 percent) and permanent disability, there is no need to reapply after you have been accepted.

If you are married and you own your home jointly, both you and your spouse must sign the form.

Required attachments

Please attach United States Government Form DD214 or other official military discharge papers to verify that you have been honorably discharged from the United States Armed Forces. Please also attach any forms that verify your service-connected disability status as certified by the United States Veterans Administration.

Use of information

The information on this form is required by Minnesota Statutes, section 273.13 to properly identify you and determine if you qualify for the market value exclusion. Your Social Security number is required. If you do not provide the required information, your application may be delayed or denied.

Penalties

Making false statements on this application is against the law. Minnesota Statutes, section 609.41, states that anyone giving false information in order to avoid or reduce their tax obligations is subject to a fine of up to $3,000 and/or up to one year in prison.
